

Topic for final thesis

Systematic Review: Positive Psychology Interventions in Sports

We are currently looking for Master's students who are interested in writing their thesis as a literature review on the topic of positive psychology interventions in sport.

As part of a systematic review, the extent to which positive psychology interventions affect the well-being and performance of athletes will be investigated.

Individual topics will be discussed in detail in a personal meeting.

Important:

- The thesis is a literature thesis.
