

PRELIMINARY International Course Offer – winter semester 2022/2023 (October 2022 – February 2023)

The following seminars and courses are especially designed for international students and will be taught in English.

- 1 Title: German Sport Culture
Lecturer: Dr. Gerard King
Date/Time: Tue 11 am – 12:30 pm
Location: SR 64
Type: Seminar
Language: English
Brief description of content and aims: In this seminar, the governmental and non-governmental sport administration in Germany will be introduced. Specific characteristics of German Sport and its impact on culture and society will be presented and discussed. International students will also practically engage in selected sport activities including the achievements within the German Sports Badge (Track & Field).
Hours per week (SWS): 2
Credit Points: 2.5
Prerequisites: Good English language skills
- 2 Title: Dance
Lecturer: Margit Franzen
Date/Time: 14th/15th of January 2023
Location: Ha 3
Type: Practical course (compact course, one weekend)
Language: English
Brief description of content and aims: This module aims at developing basic knowledge about how a dance lesson is designed, planned and held; students should also experience basic body skills necessary in dance, such as alignment, balance and bounce. Furthermore, this module gives examples of dance lessons within the framework of school education. Students are supposed to experience different techniques of developing creative tasks and work with set material as well as their own movement ideas.
Hours per week (SWS): 2
Credit Points: 2
Prerequisites: Good English language skills
- 3 Title: Cycling
Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Helmut Lötzerich
Date/Time: Thu, 10 am – 1 pm;
approx. five to six Thursday course sessions (depending on the weather), starting on the 13th of October
plus up to three weekend sessions, including an excursion to the Velodrome in Büttgen/Kaarst
Location: First meeting at the bicycle cellar
Type: Practical course, max. 12 participants
Language: English
Brief description of content and aims: This course gives a general introduction to teaching and learning of cycling activities. Students will be practically engaged in three types of cycling: track cycling, road cycling and mountain biking. By the end of the course, students should be able to understand the distinctive nature of the three types of cycling, improve their cycling techniques and demonstrate knowledge of various teaching methods and competition forms.
Hours per week (SWS): 2
Credit Points: 2
Prerequisites: Helmets, racing bicycles, mountain bikes and velodrome bikes are provided. You will need to bring an Allen key size 5 and 6 and a cleaning cloth. Good English language skills and good fitness level required

- 4 Title: Socio-cultural Aspects of the Modern Olympic Movement
Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Wassong
Date/Time: Monday, 5 – 6:30 pm
Location: SR 61
Type: Seminar
Language: English
Brief description of content and aims: In the course, historical and contemporary issues of the Modern Olympic Movement will be critically discussed. - 6 Title: Sport Psychology and Mental Coaching
Lecturer: Dr. Sylvain Laborde
Date/Time: Tue 2 pm – 3:30 pm
Location: SR 91
Type: Seminar
Language: English
Description: You already train your body, but have you ever thought about training your mind? According to elite athletes, mental training is what makes the difference between the gold and the silver medal. In this seminar students will get to learn how mental training can help to improve sport performance. The topics discussed will encompass self-talk, goal setting, imagery, stress and emotion regulation, concentration, and how to individualize mental training based on athletes' personality and emotional intelligence. Many applied mental training techniques will be discussed and practiced during the seminar, so that the students can directly integrate them to their practice as athletes or coaches.
Hours per week (SWS): 2
Credit Points: 2.5
Prerequisites: Good English language skills
- 7 Title: Applied Exercise Physiology
Lecturer: Dr. Oliver J. Quittmann
Date/Time: Fri 3:30 pm – 5 pm
Location: SR 60
Type: Seminar
Language: English
Description: This seminar aims to illustrate the physiological processes underlying physical exercise and performance with primary focus on testing and training in endurance sports. This is an introductory level course intended for Physical Education and Exercise Science majors. The student will learn and experience fundamental mechanisms of acute responses and chronic adaptations to various forms of (endurance) training. Topics like high-intensity interval training, concurrent training and lactate-based field testing are covered in theory and practice.
Hours per week (SWS): 2
Credit Points: 2.5
Prerequisites: Good English language skills

- 8 Title: Biomedical Fundamentals
Lecturer: Dr. Jonas Zacher
Date/Time: Mon 12 am – 2 pm, every other week, starting on the 10th of October
Location: SR 96
Type: Seminar, max. 10 participants
Language: English
Description: In this seminar students will get to learn to apply scientific working techniques in the areas of biomechanics, orthopaedics, sports medicine, physiology, biochemistry and functional anatomy.
Hours per week (SWS): 1
Credit Points: 2
Prerequisites: Good English language skills
- 9 Title: Exercise physiology in unique environments / Rescue and Safety for water-based activities in theory and practice
Lecturer: Fabian Möller / Evelyn Hinz
Date/Time: Monday, 12 am – 3 pm)
Location: Aquatics centre
Type: Seminar and practical course
Language: English
Exercise physiology in unique environments:
Description: This course covers exercise physiology in both theory and hands-on practice. In the laboratory, common methods for the assessment of both peak and regulative performance are discussed, applied and the results evaluated by the students (e.g., spiroergometric measurements, blood lactate sampling, electrocardiography). Basic knowledge is further extended by an introduction to diving physiology and the implications on human performance in altered environmental settings, which includes a practical session of breath-hold and SCUBA-diving. On this basis, the assessment of exercise performance is transferred to methods suitable within the aquatic and underwater environment. All self-obtained data will be prepared, analyzed discussed. No previous experience is necessary, all materials are provided.
The course consists of four blocks, each calculated for 4 teaching units.
Block 1:
Laboratory: Basic exercise physiology and introduction to different methods and exercise tests. Conduction of graded exercise tests by participants. Preparation and evaluation of results.
Block 2:
Pool: Introduction to diving physiology (adaptation to underwater environment and implications for exercise performance). Practical introduction to SCUBA-diving.
Block 3:
Pool: Performance assessment in aquatic environments (post-exercise spiroergometrie, Borg-skales, ECG and respiratory measurements in and underwater).
Block 4:
Preparation and analysis of the obtained data. Interpretation and discussion of environmental and modality-dependent differences for exercise performance. Summary of methods and their application.
Prerequisites: Good English language skills; Mandatory: Ability to swim, being comfortable in the water, medically fit to dive, willingness to participate in exercise tests
Rescue and Safety for water-based activities in theory and practice:
Description: This seminar aims to enable the students to lead and plan water-based activities indoors and outdoors. A main part of the course is to become a competent lifesaver. This includes fundamental medical skills and knowledge, safety aspects as well as practical training of rescue techniques in the water.
Prerequisites: Good English language skills, confident swimmer (this course does not aim to teach basic swimming techniques), bring your own swimming gear (secure fit – must be suitable for jumping; bikinis are not recommended)
Hours per week (SWS) in total: 2
Credit Points in total: 2.5

Regular course offer (Bachelor/Master) – winter semester 2022/2023 (October 2022 – February 2023)

The following courses are recommended offerings within the existing BA degrees. While the International Course Offer is mainly designed by the International Office for the international students, the following suggestions are regular BA courses held in English or in some cases a mixture of English and German, but special support for international students will be provided.
