

Governance in anti-doping: How to meet the challenges

Data and debate following the National Anti-Doping Governance Observer project.

Online symposium 18-19 May 2021 – both days from 14:00-16:30 CEST

Tuesday 18 May

Time CEST	Agenda Item	Comment
14:00	Welcome and housekeeping matters	Andrea Gotzmann, Chairperson, NADA Germany  Jorge Leyva, CEO, INADO  Jens Sejer Andersen, International Director, Play the Game
14:10	NADGO main results: Presentation of the project background, scope, partners, methods – and main findings.	Introduction by Jens Sejer Andersen  Jürgen Mittag, Professor, German Sport University Cologne  Pawel Zembura, Researcher, Warsaw University  Luiz Haas, PhD Candidate, University of Lisbon  Lorenz Fiege, Master Student, German Sport University Cologne  Christina Friis Johansen, and Daniel Hayman, Analysts, Danish Institute for Sports Studies  Moderator: Eva Bunthoff, Director Communication and Marketing, NADA Germany
15:10	Break
15:20	An independent view on the NADGO conclusions on the governance challenges in anti-doping	David Howman, sports lawyer, former WADA Director General, New Zealand
15:35	Does real independence exist in anti-doping – and how can we best achieve it?	Panel with David Howman and the five NADO partners in NADGO.  Open exchange with audience.  Moderator: Jorge Leyva, CEO, iNADO
16:30	End of the day

Wednesday 19 May

Time CEST	Agenda Item	Comment
14:00	Welcome and housekeeping matters	NADA/iNADO
14:05	The role of athletes in anti-doping governance. Observations from NADGO project, best practices, intervention from athlete representatives.	Paulina Tomczyk, General Secretary, EU Athletes  Adam Pengilly, Chair, WADA AC Representation working group  Athleten Deutschland (name tbc).  Moderator: Rob Koehler; Director General, Global Athlete
15:00	Break
15.10	WADA governance: Looking backward, going forward	Edith Driescens, Associate Professor, KU Leuven
15.20	WADA governance reforms – where do we stand and where can we go?	Richard McLaren, Co-Founder and CEO, McLaren Global Sports Solutions  WADA Board Member (tbc)  Akaash Maharaj, CEO, previous member of WADA's Governance Reform Group  Michael Ask, Chair, iNADO  Edith Driescens, Associate Professor, KU Leuven  Moderator: Jens Sejer Andersen
16:25	Closing of symposium	NADA/iNADO/Play the Game

