Enrolment Regulations of the German Sport University,
Cologne on 01.03.2021

Editor: The President

On the basis of Section 2 (4) and Section 48 (1) of the Higher Education Act of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz - HG) in the version of 16 September 2014 (GV. NRW. p. 547), last amended by Article 1 of the Act of 1 December 2020 (GV. NRW. p. 1110), which came into force on 8 December 2020, the German Sport University Cologne (DSHS Köln) has enacted the following enrolment regulations as statutes:

General

- (1) The study applicants are enrolled into the University upon application (enrolment). By enrolling, the student applicants are members of the university for the period of enrolment and subject to the consequent rights and obligations described in more detail in the basic rules of the German Sport University, Cologne and in the regulations of the student body.
Applicants for a Master's degree of Advances Studies are enrolled as Master's degree students of Advanced Studies. Pursuant to § 62 Para. 3 HG, these students may become members of the student body for the duration of their enrolment, with the resulting rights and obligations described in more detail in the basic regulations of the German Sport University Cologne and in the statutes of the student body.
- (2) Applications for enrolment for a degree course must be granted if the conditions for enrolment are proven and no admission barriers exist.
- (3) Enrolment onto a degree course or for more than one degree course takes place for those who fulfil the requirements of paragraph 2; also studies for the purpose of admission to a doctorate programme and the postgraduate Master's Degree courses offered by the university are also considered as degree courses in accordance with § 62 para. 3 HEA. Enrolments for more than one degree course at the same time, for which there is an admission procedure by a selection process, by applicants from undergraduate studies are excluded, can only take place if this is necessary because of a required degree combination for the professional qualification.
- (4) Enrolment may be limited, without prejudice to the obligation to provide notification when:
 - a) the selected degree course is only partially offered at the university ,
 - b) the chosen degree course is subject to admission restrictions, for a part of this course, a higher training capacity than for a later part exists and it is guaranteed that the studies can be continued at other universities,
 - c) admission for other reasons is limited to a part of the degree course or
 - d) the candidate has been admitted for studies for a limited-time

Conditions of enrolment

- (1) The qualification for studies is proven by a certificate of higher education (general or technical university) or a recognized equivalent training. The general Higher Education Entrance Qualification entitles unlimited studies only to studies related to the subjects in the general Higher Education Entrance Qualification. Enrolment for doctoral studies (§ 1 para. 3 sentence 1) can only take place if the requirements of § 67 HEA are met and the certificate that is issued by a professor, a lecturer or lecturers at the German Sport University is presented, showing that through this or these, a supervision of the dissertation will occur.

- (2) Proof of special training, special course-related suitability or a practical activity is required, so far as the examination regulations so provide.
- (3) For studies where enrolment quotas have been set, enrolment requires evidence on the allocation of a place (letter of admission). This proof is not necessary if the registration is requested under the classification of enrolment into a higher semester, for which there is no enrolment quotas set for admission, as long as the recognition of the respective study times is proved.
- (4) § 49 para. 10 HEA remains unaffected.
- (5) Ordinance whoever applies to study without proof of qualification according to paragraph 1 clause 1, can be enrolled under the requirements according to § 49 paragraph 6 HEA (entrance examination).

Process

Admission to the degree programme must be applied for in due time. In not restricted admission, the university will set a registration period. In restricted admission degree courses, application for admission must be received by the competent authority within the prescribed period; those applicants who miss this deadline or who have not applied in the proper manner is excluded from the award of places procedure. The periods referred to in clauses 1 and 2 will be announced on the website of the German Sport University, Cologne and on their notice board. For restricted admissions, enrolment deadlines are set out in the letter of acceptance.

Selection of applicants for degree courses with restricted admission

- (1) The selection of applicants in the selection procedure for undergraduate degree programmes takes place after deduction of the preliminary quotas in accordance with § 8 of the Law on Admission to University Studies in North Rhine-Westphalia (HZG) in conjunction with § 26 of the Award Regulations of North Rhine-Westphalia (VergabeVO). § 26 Vergabeverordnung Nordrhein Westfalen (VergabeVO) according to the following principles:
 1. 20 per cent of the study places according to the result of the university entrance qualification and

2. 80 per cent according to the result of a selection procedure of the higher education institution pursuant to paragraph 2; of these, 4 per cent of the study places shall be awarded to persons qualified in vocational education and training in a sub-quota, provided there are corresponding applications.

- (2) The study places pursuant to sub-section 1 no. 2 half-sentence 1 shall be allocated
 1. According to the result of the higher education entrance qualification and
 2. According to the waiting period of a maximum of seven semesters, whereby periods of study at a German state or state-supported higher education institution are not taken into account (cf. also section 27, paragraph 3 of the Regulations on the Award of Study Places). The grade of the higher education entrance qualification less 0.1 grade points per waiting semester is included in the ranking list.
- (3) Squad athletes who fulfil the admission requirements and belong to an Olympic Squad (OK), Perspective Squad (PK), Supplementary Squad (EK), Junior Squad 1 (NK 1), Junior Squad 2 (NK 2) of a national professional association of the German Olympic Sports Confederation, are always given priority in the allocation of places for the first semester as well as for higher semesters. 3 HZG, are always given priority in the allocation of places for the first semester as well as for higher semesters. The existing quota as defined in § 8 HZG is not taken into account. Admission to a consecutive Master's degree programme requires a relevant undergraduate degree programme, even for squad athletes.

Foreign and stateless student applicants

- (1) Prospective applicants who are not German within the meaning of Article 116 of the German Basic Law nor have acquired their university entrance qualifications at German-speaking institution, are enrolled, as far as no admission obstacles exist, they prove the necessary qualifications for the selected course of study, provide the evidence required pursuant to § 2 clause 2, possess sufficient knowledge of the German language and have been admitted to a degree program. Foreign applicants and applicants from non-German speaking countries have to prove sufficient knowledge of German language through a language examination from the institution before commencing a degree course. For foreign language courses and for admission to the doctoral program, the language requirements specified in the admission regulations and the doctorate ordinance apply.
- 2) For those who have not provided proof of sufficient knowledge of the German language (§ 49 section 10 HEA) and who want to attend a university language course in order to take the language test, the award of the legal status of a student is limited to a maximum of four semesters or until they pass or fail the language test, if admission to the university language course is successful; they are not entitled to participate in university elections.
- (3) Passing the test described in paragraph 2 does not mean the right of enrolment to a degree program has been acquired.

- (4) The qualification requirements for admission according to paragraph 1 and 2 shall be determined, without prejudice, according to paragraph 5 pursuant to Regulation on the Equivalence of Foreign Educational Qualifications with the Certificate of Entrance to Higher Education (Qualification regulation on foreign educational qualifications - AQVO) dated June 22nd 1983 (GV NRW 1983 p.261), last amended by regulation dated 15th November 1984 (GV. NRW. p 752). The selection of candidates in accordance with paragraph 1 for restricted degree programs is based on the average mark procedure. This average mark is saved by the Registrar's Office for the purpose of an admission decision.
- (5) Exceptions of paragraphs 1 to 4 are possible (§ 50 para. 3 HEA) when the admission for a temporary study without completion by a foreign and/or stateless person who have come to the German Sport University, Cologne as part of a scholarship or fellow of a national, EU or other international funding organization as well as a bilateral exchange programme agreed with foreign universities.

Enrolment

- (1) Enrolment onto a degree program is carried out on application by the candidate. The application must be made in the correct format within the period prescribed by the university or other competent authority. If the study regulations stipulate that the study may be undertaken only on an annual basis, the application is permitted only if a curriculum/course exists for that semester. A special form may be required for the application. The deadlines will be published within the university or announced in the letter of acceptance. As a rule, enrolment is done in person; the university decides in exceptional cases.
- (2) The following must be provided for enrolment:
 1. the completed and signed application for enrolment,
 2. certificates required for the proof of qualifications as well as, in the case of § 2 para. 2, the certificates or documents for the proof of special education, special course-related aptitude or practical training in their original form. Foreign certificates shall be submitted in their original along with a photocopy or duplicate. In the Federal Republic of Germany, photocopies or duplicates of foreign certificates require an authorized certification by the German diplomatic or consular representation in the country of origin. Original certificates in other languages are, in principle, accompanied by the German-language translation, the accuracy is certified by the competent German diplomatic or consular representation in the country of origin or by sworn interpreters or translators in the Federal Republic of Germany. Upon request, applicants must prove the authenticity of certificates with their legalization by the competent German authority,

 8. a statement of whether and if so what examinations or credit records as part of a study and/or examination regulations were not passed,
 9. insurance certificate in accordance with the legal provisions relating to student health,
 10. a general consent of the parent or guardian in cases where the applicant is still a minor.
- (3) In cases where a candidate fails to comply with the prescribed deadline, the enrolment, notification or study leave can take place at a later date upon request, if good cause is shown. At the same time, any fees following the Higher Education Fees Act, in its current version, are payable. Requests pursuant to clause 1 shall not be permitted after the start of term-time.
- (4) Foreign and/or stateless applicants and applicants from non-German speaking countries have to prove sufficient knowledge of German according to the language examination ordinance of the university. For foreign language courses and for admission to the doctoral program, the language requirements specified in the admission regulations and the doctorate ordinance apply.
- (5) When applying for enrolment, the applicants will receive a written notice semester fees payable according to the relevant legal provisions. The semester fee is payable immediately upon receipt of the written notice. The student card (smart card) is issued only after receipt of the amount due into the bank account of the German Sport University, Cologne. The applicant must prove payment on request of the university.

Refusal of enrolment

- (1) Except in the case of lack of qualifications or lack of evidence, registration is considered unsuccessful:
 - a) if the applicant has not been admitted to a restricted admission degree course,
 - b) if the applicant has not finally passed an exam required in accordance to examination regulations at a university in the scope of the Basic Law or not definitively provided proof of grades/credits required by the examination regulations, in the chosen degree course ; this applies correspondingly to degree courses with a significant similarity to the previous degree course determined in the examination regulations.

- (2) Enrolment can be refused if the applicant:
- a) suffers from an illness which seriously endangers the health of the university members, in particular the students, or which threatens to seriously impair the proper running of the university,
 - b) has not observed the prescribed forms and deadlines for enrolment,
 - c) does not provide proof of payment of fees or contributions to be paid.

- (2) Students and student applicants also collaborate with the automated business processes and procedures employed in the university. This includes, in particular the participation in automated application and enrolment, course assignment and evaluation as well as other methods for organizing the program. The basis of some procedures are the active use of the university-wide identity management system used, the access detection obtained after enrolment and the e-mail address assigned at enrolment.

§ 10 Exmatriculation

- (1) Students are de-registered upon application; this is usually done at the end of the semester.
- (2) Furthermore, the de-registration is carried out when
- a) Enrolling under pressure, through intentional deception or a crime,
 - b) an examination required by the examination regulations is finally failed in the degree program or a credit/grade required by the examination regulations has not been completely performed,
 - c) the decision on the allocation of a study place has been withdrawn during the procurement procedure by the body responsible for the allocation of places.
- (3) After the issuance of the certificate of having passed the final exam, students have to deregister by the end of the current semester, unless they are still enrolled in another course. The final examination within the meaning of sentence 1 is the first state examination in a permitted teaching degree combination.
- (4) Students can be de-registered if
- a) after enrolling, facts are known and still exist or occur which would have led to the enrolment must being refused,
 - b) they do not take up the study or do not re-register without being on semester leave,
 - c) they do not pay the fees and contributions despite reminders and a deadline with threat of action,
 - d) they do not comply with the obligations, under the Social Security Code, with the competent respective health insurance company,
 - e) a case outlined § 63 para. 5 clause 6 HEA exists.
 - f) he or she has lost his or her entitlement to take part in an examination required by the examination regulations,
 - g) his or her place of residence or stay cannot be determined.
- (5) Withdrawal from registration or re-registration is possible only up to the last working day before classes begin and in the form of a reasoned request.
- (6) The request for de-registration under paragraph 1 shall be accompanied by:

1. the completed deregistration form
 2. the student card (smart card)
 3. the certificate (s) on discharge of liabilities to HEIs or the evidence or proof of the transfer of fees or contributions to be paid.
- (7) The effect of the de-registration shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act on the withdrawal and revocation of administrative acts. Students receive a certificate concerning the de-registration. With de-registration, membership at the university expires. If the de-registration issued, because the person concerned has not re-registered, the effect of de-registration comes into force on the last day of the semester in which they were enrolled or re-registered the last time.
- (8) For the purpose of keeping in contact with alumni, the following personal data of exmatriculated students may be saved and used for a period of 80 years after exmatriculation by the university: Surname if applicable birth name, first name, matriculation, date of birth, address, landline number, mobile number, email address, study courses with number of university semesters, registration date, de-registration date. The students are to be notified regarding their voluntary participation in the alumni communication and their options of objecting to this.

Re-registering

- (1) If enrolled students should want to continue their studies at the University after the end of each semester (semester) in the same degree, they must report back within the deadline set by the university.
- (2) A timely re-registration is in effect when the semester fee has been received in the applicable amount and within six working days following the end of the registration period at the university.
- (3) If the conditions of paragraphs 1 and 2 are met, the re-registrations at the university is completed.

Attendance of courses

Each and every student has to attend the courses in the time period specified by the university management, unless students are on a semester leave.

Study leave

- (1) A semester leave from study can be claimed as long as an important reason is provided.
- (2) Important reasons may include:

- a) Completion of a Federal Voluntary Service, a voluntary social or ecological year,
 - b) temporary illness; proof shall be furnished by a professional medical opinion, which shall outline the nature and extent of the illness-related hindrance to study. The number of semester leave due to illness may not exceed the number of semesters of the standard period of study of the course program, for which the student is enrolled,
 - c) Studying at a foreign university or language school,
 - d) Completion of an internship, which serves the objective of the study,
 - e) Pregnancy or child care, that could prevent the expected study results and performance,
 - f) serving a prison sentence,
 - g) Care of wife, husband, registered legal partner, or relatives in direct lineage or related by first degree in-law, if this care is needed,
 - h) establishment of a company,
 - i) assertion of other important reasons of equal significance.
- (3) The semester leave is granted upon application stating the reasons and giving evidence and is usually for the duration of a semester. During the student leave for more than six months, university membership rights and duties (§ 10 para. 1 sentence 6 HEA) are suspended. Students on leave are not entitled to provide coursework and attend examinations at the university where they are enrolled, in principle; exceptions require special permission. An administrative assistance for the recovery of mobility is not made in cases of leave due to illness, study abroad and completion of community service (paragraph 2 letter a, b and c).
- (4) The application for leave must be accompanied by:
1. the completed leave form,
 2. proof of payment of the fees and contributions,
 3. written justification of the application together with the evidence of the existence of an important reason.
- (5) The Registrar's office saves the status of leave on the basis of groups of cases of paragraph 2 per semester.
- (6) A semester leave for the first semester or for completed semesters is not allowed.

Placing students in higher semesters

The placing of students in higher semesters is done in accordance with the provisions of the applicable regulation on the allocation of places in North Rhine-Westphalia.

Second listener status

- (1) Enrolled students who are not taking semester leave in other universities in the scope of the Basic Law can be admitted, at their request, as a second listener student with permission to attend lectures and to pass examinations complimenting their studies if no restrictions are made in accordance with § 59 HEA.

- (2) Enrolled students from other universities in the scope of the Basic Law can be admitted as second listener students for the study of another program, if the requirements of § 1 para. 2 and para. 3 clause 2 are fulfilled.
- (3) Second listener students will belong to the university without being members of it, during the period of admission. They will receive a certificate of admission to particular courses or admission to a degree course or more degree courses. The application for admission shall be submitted within the deadlines and time-periods announced by the university. A registration certificate from the home university must be provided for the application as a guest student.
- (4) The regulations for enrolment, rejection, re-registration and exmatriculation shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Guest students

- (1) Applicants who wish to attend individual courses at the university may be admitted on application as a guest student in the framework of the existing study opportunities. Proof of qualifications according to § 2 is not required.
- (2) The guest student fee is payable according to the Higher Education Fees Act in its current version shall be paid.
- (3) § 13 para. 3 applies to guest students accordingly.
- (4) Guest students within the meaning of these provision are also participants of educational lectures at the university, provided that they are not registered as students under the conditions specified in § 1 para. 2.
- (5) The right to take examinations does not exist. Only a certificate of participation in courses can be purchased. This does not apply to participants in further education and Master's degree of Advanced Studies as defined in § 62 HEA.

Participation in further education studies

- (1) For postgraduate study § 62 HEA and the supplementary provisions of the German Sport University, Cologne apply.
- (2) Applicants for a Master's degree programme in further education are enrolled as further education students. Further education students can become members of the student body upon application and thus receive the active and passive right to vote. As a member of the student body, continuing education students must pay the semester fee in accordance with the relevant legal provisions. § 6 Para. 5 of these regulations shall apply.

- (3) If the number of participants for a postgraduate study has been limited by the competent body because of the nature or the purpose of studying, because the number of applicants exceeds the capacity and provided there are no other binding regulations, registration takes place in the order in which the applications were received until the specified number of participants is reached. In cases where several applications are received at the same time, it will be decided by lot.

Concluding provisions, exclusion of complaints

- (1) These regulations come into force on the day following its publication in the Official Notices of the German Sport University, Cologne.
- (2) The violation of procedural or formal requirements of the HG NRW or of the university's regulatory or other autonomous law may only be asserted against these regulations within one year of their publication, unless
- a. the regulations have not been properly published,
 - b. the President's Office has previously objected to the resolution of the body adopting the regulations
 - c. the university has been notified of the formal or procedural defect in advance, indicating the legal provision that has been violated and the fact that gives rise to the defect, or
 - d. the legal consequence of the exclusion of the right of objection was not pointed out in the public announcement of the regulations. The supervisory powers pursuant to § 76 HG shall remain unaffected.
- (3) Issued on the basis of the resolution of the Senate of the German Sport University Cologne 01.03.2021
These regulations have been drafted in the German and English languages. In case of any ambiguities between the German and the English version the German version shall prevail.
