ABOUT US

In 2024, Germany will host the 17th edition of the UEFA European Football Championship. Staging the biggest European sports event provides a unique opportunity for UEFA and DFB to jointly organise a celebration of the best of European Football, on the basis of excellence, sustainability, and passion. This flagship championship aspires to be a role model for other UEFA competitions, as well as leaving strong legacy for the future of European football. EURO 2024 GmbH, joint venture organisation between UEFA Events SA and DFB EURO GmbH, is responsible for the operational planning and implementation of the tournament.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

- Contribute to and help shape the staging of Europe's biggest sporting event
- Varied and challenging tasks
- Working in a unique, exciting and sporty environment - once in the lifetime experience on the pitch
