Applicants must document:

- relevant international publications in the context of the professorship
- recognisable transfer of scientific findings into practice
- a high level of expertise in methods of empirical social research
- successful acquisition of third-party funding, especially competitive third-party funding
- positively evaluated teaching in the context of the professorship

Applicants are expected to have:

- experience with interdisciplinary cooperation
- international research cooperations
- Willingness to actively contribute to the shaping of a profile focus of GSU

Desirable attributes:

- interdisciplinary connectivity
- English-language teaching competence
- international experience in academic institutions

Willingness to work in all Bachelor's, Master's and Teacher's degree programmes at the GSU is expected.

Prerequisites of employment according to § 36 of the Higher Education Act NRW are:

- a university degree
- a Ph.D. or equivalent
- appropriate pedagogical/educational skills
- a post doctoral qualification (habilitation) or equivalent scientific achievements

The position includes a teaching load of 9 teaching units (45 mins) per week (F1).

For international applicants, initial adequate German language skills and the ability to offer classes taught in German language within six semesters are expected.

The German Sport University Cologne strives to increase the proportion of female staff and expressly encourages qualified female applications. Women will be considered preferentially in accordance with the State Equality Act.

Applications from persons with severe disabilities or equivalent status are welcome. They will be given preferential treatment within the framework of the statutory provisions.

It is the policy of the German Sport University Cologne to support its employees in reconciling family life and work.
