

Seeking a candidate with strong football technical expertise in drawing plays and film breakdown. Experience as a GA or QC ideal.

Location: Remote

Working student, internship, part-time

Cognilize is a pioneering technology company specializing in science-driven, custom training systems tailored to enhance and evaluate athletes' cognitive performance. We are proud to work with teams on collegiate and professional levels, operating in an environment where excellence is the only acceptable outcome.

Job Description

You will be responsible for helping our team prepare custom training content based on scouting reports/footage. You will collaborate with our team and clients to design and implement new content on a daily basis.

Shift and schedule

Based on USA American Football season schedule.

Working students: Up to 20h/week during the semester, opportunity to work more hours during the lecture-free periods.

Key Responsibilities

We are seeking a candidate with a keen sense of accuracy to join our team.

- Collaborate with our team and clients to design and implement custom training content tailored to the clients' needs.
- Take ownership of critical tasks, ensuring their successful execution and timely delivery.

Please only apply if you meet the required criteria below.

Qualifications:

- At least one year of experience in American Football coaching, analytics, or related (f.e. former or current player).
- Ideal candidate will have a solid understanding of offense and defense.
- Strong football technical expertise in drawing plays and film breakdown.
- Proficiency in English, with fluent or advanced skills preferred, is required for this position.
- Excellent oral, written, and presentation skills and the ability to work collaboratively in a team.
- Strong work ethic and self-starter
- Great attention to detail
- Ability to work independently and strong organizational skills to meet deadlines
- Passion for the game

Benefits

- Working student compensation and performance-based incentives tailored to the experience and qualifications of the selected candidate.
- Opportunity to work in American Football, alongside organizations on the collegiate and professional level.
- Professional development opportunities.

Please submit your resume and a cover letter detailing your relevant experience and why you are the ideal candidate for this role.

At our company, we believe in fostering an inclusive and diverse workplace where everyone has an equal opportunity to thrive. We are committed to providing a work environment free from discrimination and harassment based on race, religion, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, or disability status. We celebrate the unique perspectives and backgrounds of our employees, and we actively promote fairness and equality in all aspects of employment.