

Physiotherapist- Firmament Sports

About Firmament Sports

Firmament Sports is an international organization dedicated to high-performance youth football development. We collaborate with world-class clubs such as FC Barcelona, Atlético de Madrid, and Inter Milan, bringing their official training methodologies to Summer Camps and development programs across Europe. Our mission is to provide young players with a unique sporting and educational experience rooted in elite football culture, strong values, and modern training principles.

Our Summer Camps offer a professional environment where players train under the identity and methodology of some of the most respected clubs in the world. Participants experience a blend of technical growth, tactical understanding, and personal development in a multicultural setting.

Position: Physiotherapist – Summer Camps (Weekly Contracts)

We are looking for motivated, responsible, and passionate Physiotherapist to join our staff during the Summer Camps. This role is ideal for coaches who want to grow professionally, work in an international environment, and be part of a project backed by top-level football institutions

Key Responsibilities

- Provide on site physiotherapy support during all training sessions and matches
- Conduct injury assessment and acute treatment
- Communicate clearly with coaching staff regarding player fitness status
- Ensure medical equipment is prepared, maintained and fully stocked
- Serve as a role model in attitude, discipline, and teamwork

Contract Details

- Weekly contracts, with the possibility of working multiple consecutive weeks.
- Monthly compensation, adjusted according to experience and assigned responsibilities.
- Official coaching apparel provided.
- Accommodation and meals may be included depending on the camp location.
- Opportunities to continue in future international programs

Candidate Profile

- Full availability for one or several complete weeks (mandatory)
- Initial experience as a Physiotherapist
- Passion for football and youth development
- Comfortable working with children and teenagers
- Fluent in German (mandatory)
- English level B2–C1 (mandatory)
- High level of responsibility and maturity
- Energetic, proactive, and team-oriented mindset

Why Join Firmament Sports?

- Be part of a project connected to three of the most influential football methodologies in the world:
 - FC Barcelona — positional play, creativity, and decision-making.
 - Atlético de Madrid — intensity, competitiveness, and tactical discipline.
 - Inter Milan — structure, organization, and Italian high-performance culture.
- Work in a multicultural environment with coaches and players from different countries.
- Gain valuable experience to strengthen your coaching career and professional network.
- Contribute to the growth and development of young footballers in a high-quality program.

2026 Barça Academy Football Camps Germany – Summary of Dates

- Bremen: 06 – 10 July
- Hamburg: 13 - 17 July
- Cologne & Hannover : 20 - 24 July
- Berlin & Düsseldorf: 27 - 31 July
- Frankfurt am Main & Dresden: 03 - 07 August
- Stuttgart & Dortmund: 10 - 14 August
- Nürnberg: 17 - 21 August

Once interested, you can complete this Google form for more specific information:

For any question just send an email to: talent@firmamentsports.com