Session 2: Sat or Sun - to be announced
Session 3: short preparatory meeting
Session 4: Field trip to Berlin
Language: English
Description: In this course we will cover the main features of German history and political development. The historical focus will be on the period since the creation of a German nation state in 1871 and the most important events of the 20th century. From the German Empire to the First World War and the first German democracy (the Weimar Republic), we will trace Nazi Germany/World War II and the division of Germany during the Cold War. We will recapitulate the emergence of modern democracy in West Germany and its transformation over the decades from the Bonn Republic to the unification of the two German states in 1990 and today's Berlin Republic. We will also examine the most important political developments and take a closer look at the federal system that characterises Germany. Furthermore, we will also address the more recent major challenges the democratic system in Germany faces through globalisation, demographic change, migration and the emergence of new, partially anti-constitutional and openly racist parties. The course will be accompanied by a study trip to the German capital Berlin, where many traces of German history can still be seen today.

Regular course offer (Practical Bachelor Courses)

The following recommendations are regular BA practical courses taught in German. Experience has shown that the following courses are perfectly feasible for exchange students, even though they are taught in German. This is partly because the lecturers and fellow students in these courses are happy to provide good support in English, and partly because the language barrier is easier to overcome during the physical practice.

- 1 Module: BAS3 – Practical application of basic concepts in training science
Course offers: Endurance capability; Coordination training; Strength and power in sport; Playing ability
Lecturer/Date/Time/Location: several options, please see regular Bachelor course catalogue
Recommendation: if applicable, prefer Dr Vera Abeln
Type: Practical courses
Language: German
Description: The students acquire a sports practical and theoretical expertise in training science and physiological performance aspects as well as sports-spreading bases of the ability to play.
Hours per week: 1 SWS
Credit Points: 1 per discipline
Course Codes : see regular Bachelor course catalogue

- 2 Title: BAS4 – Movement and expression
Course offers: Movement and creation II
Lecturer/Date/Time/Location: several options, please see regular Bachelor course catalogue
Type: Practical course
Language: German
Description: With a movement-improvisational-exploratory activity, students are challenged and encouraged in their functionally creativity of movement and are put in a position to develop and teach problem-specific movements for learning and training.
Hours per week: 2 SWS
Credit Points: 2
Course Code : BA10400002

- 3 Title: BAS5 – Theory and practice of sport disciplines and areas of movement
Course offers: both semesters: Martial arts, combat sports and self defense; Cycling; Sports climbing; Diving sports; Technically compiled sport disciplines
only summer semester: Canoeing; Rowing
Lecturer/Date/Time/Location: several options, please see regular Bachelor course catalogue
Type: Practical courses
Language: German
Description: In this module, students are able to get an insight into more untypical sports. They will learn the basics as well as security and emergency cases in some courses.
